2016 Holiday Gift Shop Alternative

Laura D'Agostino

- Laura talked about a project at her last school where the parents & teachers made hand crafted gifts that were then sold as a fundraiser at their Holiday Gift Shop. The sales made are pure profit because the materials are all donated. The idea was received well and is a nice way to bring parents and teacher together. Laura will take the lead on organizing one or two of these before the end of the school year.

- Looking for alternatives to selling sweets for fundraisers. Would like everyone to look at options and bring ideas to the February meeting for discussion.
