- Half-Seas originates from a 1700s sailor term "half-seas over" which is said to originate from the notion of a heavy-laden ship, so low in the water that small waves, or half seas, wash over the deck. The term represents the leisure and pleasure of imbibing. Half-Seas Sparkling Cocktails provide the same feeling.

Half-Seas Paloma

- Despite being the most popular tequila-based cocktail in Mexico little is known about the origin of the Paloma other than that it was made by mixing tequila with grapefruit soda.
- The Half-Seas Paloma Sparkling Cocktail takes this tradition a step further by mixing the finest Mexican tequila with our own all-natural refreshing grapefruit soda, pure cane syrup, and zesty lime.

COCKTAILS THAT SPARKLE

Half-Seas Daiquiri

- The Daiquiri is arguably one of the most well-known cocktails in the world. Similar to the “grog” of British sailors in the late 1700s which included rum, water, lime, and sugar, the Daiquiri was refined as a cocktail and popularized in early 1900s New York.
- The Half-Seas Daiquiri Sparkling Cocktail remains true to the original ingredients, with white rum, tart limes, sweet pure cane sugar, and the added twist of effervescence.
- Refreshing, easy to drink, and sure to be a favorite.
