

Qatar Institute for Intercultural Communication Education City – Doha – Qatar

April 17, 2018

Low Budget High Impact: Diversity & Intercultural Training

This workshop is a program of training activities that can be described by exactly these four words: Low Budget, High Impact. You will add to your toolbox exercises, simulations, and process facilitation techniques applicable for intercultural and diversity work in various settings. We will explore potential facilitation challenges and focus on debriefing. Special attention will be given to understanding what constitutes high impact from different perspectives.

Tatyana Fertelmeyster is the founder and principal of Connecting Differences LLC. She provides intercultural communication and diversity training to corporate clients, educators, and mental health professionals both nationally and internationally. She specializes in teaching facilitators how to facilitate trainings, meetings, and other group processes. As a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor, her professional experience includes providing resettlement services to refugees and counseling to individuals and families going through cultural transitions. Tatyana is a co-author of Cultural Detective® Russia and a master trainer of facilitators for Cultural Detective®. She also co-authored the Trainers' Guide for Working with Pre-literate Populations. Tatyana is a Past President of SIETAR USA.

For more information, please visit www.intercultural.org/qatar.html