Recommended Band: Chilli & Lime/ Hailed as The "Jazz Maestros", Chilli & Lime is a vibrant young jazz band that has firmly established itself on the South African jazz scene. Since their inception in 2006, Chilli & Lime has performed alongside great South African artists, including Mango Groove and Judith Sephuma. The line-up includes Johannesburg's finest talent performing traditional jazz, Latin, Funk and African favourites

Check in and time at leisure to refresh.

We depart the hotel at 16h00 for a visit to Soweto. Travelling Time: Approx 30 minutes

Despite difficult circumstances and poor living conditions, you will experience the vibrancy and spirit of the South African people. Soweto may sound like an African name, but the word is actually a simple acronym for "South Western Townships", a product of segregationist planning. This experience gives you the opportunity to gain a new perspective and personal insight into the largest township in South Africa. We meet a range of creative minds, including artists, actors, and musicians.

Highlights include The Soweto Theatre where guests will enjoy a short act, Eyethu Art Centre, where they will meet a local Street Artist and Nelson Mandela House, where they will receive a short talk by a representative from the Nelson Mandela Foundation. The group will split into 3 and enjoy a short visit and a personal welcome or special act.

The South African Museum and Planetarium, The National Arts Gallery and the extensive South African Cultural Museum and St. George's Cathedral all have doors that open onto the Gardens. A figure from the past will tell the story of the first settlers to the Cape. (Italian Guide in Period Costume)

Green Market Square: You cannot visit Cape Town and not visit one of its oldest markets, set on a cobbled square between Short and long Market Streets. This is where Capetonians have been buying their clothing, jewellery and crafts for years, and, whilst the face of the market may have changed a little - African curios now predominate - there is still an exciting buzz as well as evidence of the city's most colourful and eccentric characters.

Bo Kaap: The name Bo-Kaap translates into "Above Cape". The area was previously called the "Malay Quarter" and used to house the many slaves brought in, mainly from Java, in the 17th and 18th Centuries. A local resident will invite you into her home and offer a local snack.

DAY 7 – SOUTH AFRICA THROUGH A LENS - GALA DINNER

The old town hall is located in the Darling Street and is one of the landmarks of Cape Town. It was built in 1905 and is therefore regarded as very young. Construction began in 1890, but because the building materials were imported mostly from United Kingdom, the completion dragged on.

The architecture is an architectural mix of Italian Renaissance and British colonial. Especially the marble facade is very impressive. The tower is 61 meters high and up to 1970 came there with 39 bells, the largest carillon in Africa. It is home to a concert hall and the city library.

On arrival, Guests will be guided into the reception rooms where they will enjoy pre dinner drinks with roving entertainment.

A Gospel Choir will welcome guests into the ornamental concert hall of the building. Here elegantly decorated tables are set up in front of a stage. The round tables were festively covered with floor length tablecloths, elegant chandeliers and African flowers.

A 4-course menu is served, completed by award winning South African wines.

The evening promises exceptional service, South African flavors, award-winning wines and a stylish ambience in the historical building. An unforgettable experience!

During the dinner the four tenors move from Table to Table with special song to sing at each one (Alternatively on stage) . Then a well-known band such as the Sterling EQ takes the stage and the party can begin!
