

Joshua Tell writes songs that draw people in. Lyrically driven songs, toe tapping to tender, traveling tunes to historical ballads. As a performer, Joshua has toured extensively throughout Europe and the USA, inspiring audiences with his energy and sensitivity. In 2015 he began working closely with a (fantastic) lead guitarist known as Doctor James. Last week they released their first EP- come check it out! You'll be humming the melodies for days.