About the city

The motto of the city Dearborn Heights is: "Henry Ford Home Town".

The city is located in Wayne County, part of Detroit's metropolitan area and the eighth largest city in Michigan.

It has a population of about 60,000. Its development boost and boom came about with the development of the automotive industry in the 1930s (with a growth of 1940% in 10 years).

Today, the Economic Development Authority operates in the city, which allocates large sums of money for investment in infrastructure and construction.

About the property

25722 Carlisle is a gorgeous ranch-style brick house, built in 1969. This 3 bedroomed home has 1 bathroom and has a garden in the front and back. The area is home to elementary and high schools, restaurants complete with social and night-life amenities.

A profitable investment in a beautiful property.
