

Jennifer Garrigues and Patricia Nix

Hubert Phipps with Jo Anne and Dr. Gerald Weingarden

ART'S IN THEIR BLOOD

Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens reception opens show featuring Phipps and Guest families.

About 350 friends and admirers of two of Palm Beach's most distinguished families turned out March 9 for the opening reception of Art in the Family Tree at the Ann Norton Sculpture Gardens in West Palm Beach. The show features works by artists in the Phipps and Guest families. Participating artists Susan Phipps Cochran, Jay Cochran, Rafe Cochran, Hubert Phipps, Michael Phipps and Diana Guest span four generations. The diversity of art, which includes sculpture, illustrations, drawings, furniture and paintings, demonstrated the range of their talents. Guests enjoyed cocktails and hors d'oeuvres while viewing the art as they strolled through the gardens and the house. They included Jo Anne and Dr. Gerald Weingarden, Leon Amar, Bob Eigelberger, Mimi and David Gochman, Judy Schrafft, Chris Walling, Jane Meadows, Jennifer Garrigues, Patricia Nix, Whitney and Jonathan Cameron Hayes, Chip James and Elizabeth Matthews. The show is on view through May 15.

—jsjstrom@pbdailynews.com

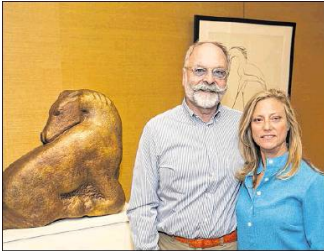

Jay and Rafe Cochran

Susan Phipps Cochran with one of her sculptures.

Whitney and Jonathan Cameron Hayes

Chip James and Elizabeth Matthews

Mimi and David Gochman

Story by Jan Sjostrom / Photos by CAPEHART