

THE PLEDGE

#COMMITTED™
COMMITTED CLOTHING COMPANY

Before being able to purchase and wear any of the clothes, you must ensure you have read the Committed Pledge and make a promise to yourself you will act upon the words you read below. You will then receive a certificate to show you've pledged and now part of the #Committed Community.

Commit to take a stand in becoming the best ME possible

Others will be treated with respect and kindness by myself

My focus will be on all the good that's in my life and supportive of the good in others

My strength will not allow negative thoughts or people make me feel like I'm not good enough

If someone is doing something I know is wrong I will not participate

Think of others feelings and potential outcomes before talking, acting or posting on social media,

Take time to listen to other people's opinions, ideas and thoughts

Each day I will try my best to remain driven on the things in life that make me happy

Don't try to fit in, embrace my individuality, you are what you are, and that makes you fantastic

#COMMITTED™

We are part of the Committed Community and together we stand proud.
There will be times this pledge seems difficult but through communication, honesty and hard work we can achieve anything.
