

Erik Kolb

Geschäftsführer und COO

Vivonio Furniture GmbH

Erik Kolb (42) has been Managing Director of Vivonio Furniture GmbH since July 2022, taking on the newly created role of COO. The focus of his activities is on group-wide improvement projects, the standardisation of working methods and processes, and the creation of a platform for the exchange of ideas and expertise between the individual business units.

Previously, Erik Kolb spent five years at the management consultancy McKinsey, managing projects in manufacturing and logistics companies with a focus on strategy development in Germany and abroad. He then served as managing director and transformation officer in companies with private equity investments, most recently at INNIO Jenbacher GmbH in Austria.

Erik Kolb holds a degree in mechanical engineering with a specialisation in manufacturing technology and a degree in business administration (both from RWTH Aachen).

Erik Kolb has a young son. He likes to spend his free time with his family - and with sporting activities in the countryside.
