

RULES AND CHECK IN PROCEDURES FOR LODI AGRICULTURAL FAIR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS – DATES JULY 12– 15, 2018

1. Please refer to the <https://datcp.wi.gov/Documents/FairRulesAnimals2018.pdf> website for ALL Livestock testing required before our fair! All animal health papers must be signed by the veterinarian and the required specific testing is completed before animals will be unloaded.
2. Our 2018 Swine Show is Non-terminal. Please note, the Lodi Agricultural Fair is only requiring the YQCA certification for the youth who are exhibiting Swine at our 2018 Lodi Agricultural Fair. A copy of this YQCA certificate and your veterinarian cleared health papers will be required to be turned into the Swine Superintendent BEFORE you will be able to unload your pigs.
3. Check In times are from 2-6PM, on Thursday. All trailers/exhibitors are to enter the fairgrounds at the back entrance off of Hill View St, forming a line for check in. DO NOT STALL ANIMALS UNTIL THEY ARE CHECKED IN.
4. All livestock (swine, cattle & sheep) will be examined and checked in on the trailer. No animals are to be unloaded until permission is given from staff.
5. All swine will be assigned pens. DO NOT stall until given a pen number.
6. Sheep must have blankets/tubes off at check in.
7. All livestock MUST be identified with a PERMANENT ID (eartag, tattoo or ear notch). This identification must match that used on the entry form.
8. All exhibitors must provide a valid Premises ID number when entering any livestock exhibits. This includes: dairy, beef, swine, sheep, poultry, and horses. Rabbit exhibits do not require a Premises ID. Failure to provide a Premises ID will void all of the exhibitor's entries.
9. Any health issues in regards to the livestock on exhibit must be reported to the superintendent/fair office. A veterinarian will be contacted by LAF.
10. Exhibitors are to be present when their meat animals are loaded out on Sunday. This is scheduled to start at 2pm for all sale animals. All other animals will be released at 4pm. It is suggested you be present by 10am on Sunday until your animal has left the fair grounds.
