RULES AND CHECK IN PROCEDURES FOR LODI AGRICULTURAL FAIR
LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS – DATES JULY 11– 14, 2019

1. Please refer to the DATCP website page https://datcp.wi.gov/Documents/FairRulesAnimals2019.pdf for ALL Livestock testing required before our fair! All animal health papers must be signed by your veterinarian and the required specific testing is completed before animals will be allowed to unload at the fairgrounds.

2. The 2019 Lodi Agricultural Fair is requiring YQCA certification for ALL LIVESTOCK . ALL LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS must be prepared to provide a copy or a digital image of the YQCA certificate upon request of livestock superintendant.

3. Check In times are from 2-6PM, on Thursday. All trailers/exhibitors need to enter the fairgrounds at the back entrance off of Hill View St, forming a line for check in. DO NOT STALL ANIMALS UNTIL THEY ARE CHECKED IN.

4. All livestock (swine, cattle & sheep) will be examined and checked in as they are unloaded from the trailer. No animals are to be unloaded until permission is given from fair staff.

5. Our 2019 Swine Show is Non-terminal . A copy of your veterinarian cleared health papers will be required to be turned into the Swine Superintendant, and then your pigs will be assigned pens. DO NOT stall until given a pen number.

6. Sheep must have blankets/tubes off at check in.

7. All livestock MUST be identified with a PERMANENT ID (eartag, tattoo or leg band).Poultry must have a Leg Band. Tattoo's must be legible on Rabbits . All other livestock must have RFID numbers or Eartags, no ear notches will be accepted. This ID must be unique to the exhibitor and animal. There will be no swapping of ID between family members. No Eartag Substitutions will be allowed for market animals after the fair entry deadline. This identification must match that used on the Lodi Ag Fair entry form.

8. All exhibitors must provide a valid Premises ID number when entering any livestock exhibits.
   This includes: dairy, beef, swine, sheep, poultry, and horses. Rabbit exhibits do not require a Premises ID. Failure to provide a Premises ID will void all of the exhibitor's entries.

9. Any health issues with livestock on exhibit must be reported to the superintendent/fair office.
   A veterinarian will be contacted by LAF.

10. Exhibitors are to be present when their market animals are loaded out on Sunday. This is scheduled to start at 2pm for all sale animals. All other animals will be released at 4pm. It is suggested you be present by 10am on Sunday until your animal has left the fair grounds.
