This time we are raising funds for "Kind Hands" an amazing local charity that provides incredible support for children, and their families, who are dealing with the many challenges they face through illness or disability.

We would love you to join us, why not get a group of friends, whanau or work colleagues together (a great team building opportunity) and have a fun day out! There will be delicious food and of course drinks available, raffles and an auction!

If you are not able to come on the day, you can still help! Why not donate a raffle or auction prize? Or be a sponsor- any help, large or small, would be very much appreciated.

If you can help or would like to join us for the day, or have any questions then Marc is the man to contact on 027 322 6128 or marc@wscas.co.nz.

HIKURANGI VOLUNTEER FIRE BRIGADE

Hi Hikurangi

We survived the weather and now we finally get summer days. During the cyclone we had 10 calls over 3 days. As a lot of us couldn't work during the day so of us spent each day at the station waiting on calls to coming through. While we waited some of just worked on laptops, other members made good progress on their training modules and are nearly ready for their next round of courses. We also had a chainsaw crew put together for the area and assisted the regional control team in Whangarei along with police, checking and clearing trees all over the Whangarei area

Were you prepared? Check out the Civil Défense's website for tips to always be prepared

The Hikurangi Auto Madness has been and gone and what a day it was weather played its part, the cars looked great. With over 450 cars, the most cars ever and people everywhere we were kept busy on the BBQ all day. Thank you to all of those who came out and showed there support to this growing event

Have you got smoke alarms installed? This is a vital tool in your home safety kit. When you're asleep, you lose your sense of smell, so make sure its in working order. Test it once a month, also give it a vacuum now and again, dust build up can trigger the smoke alarm to sound vacuuming the smoke alarm will prevent false alarms. Contact us via our Facebook page if you have any questions

During February we had 27 calls

Hikurangi has a civil defence committee who has been working in the background to update the 2012 village emergency plan. It is not quite completed yet but we are able to advise that we have secured a number of facilities to be evacuation bases if the need arises. The primary base for evacuation is the Hikurangi War Memorial Hall. However this is not always accessible in a big flood. If you or anyone you know needs emergency accommodation or has any other civil defence related requirements please contact the Hikurangi Civil Defence Chairman Cory Haslam on 022 191 5709. To keep up to date with the most accurate information please follow guidelines issued by NZ Civil Defence via the Radio, TV, or through Social Media.

HIKURANGI HISTORICAL MUSEUM

You might have seen the scaffolding around our main building, the old Courthouse. The renovation works at the museum are progressing, but there is still a long way to go until we are finished. Thanks to everyone who has come to help at our working bees so far. Your support is very much appreciated. We are working on the renovations Tuesdays/Thursdays 4pm - 7pm and on Saturdays 9am - 4pm. Please come and give us a hand.

Lunch is provided for the workers on Saturdays. One of the rooms in the Courthouse is dedicated to Florence Maud Rickard, known to her friends as "Maudie". She was born in Hikurangi in 1908 as an only child. Her parents' house was at 100 George Street, where her father had a big workshop at the back as a carpenter. Maudie was trained as a teacher in Auckland. She came back to Hikurangi in 1938 and spent the rest of her teaching days here. She raised exotic birds and grew flowers. Photography was another passion of hers - she even had her own darkroom. Maudie was the organist at the Anglican Church in Hikurangi and she loved singing. People passing her home would often hear her practicing. Maudie died in Hikurangi 92 years old. During her lifetime, she experienced many changes in this village that she grew up in. Some of you might still remember her.

The museum is open at our usual opening days/ times:
Tuesday and Thursday 10 -11.30am
and Saturday 10am-1pm, in addition to whenever a working bee is happening, or by appointment.
