

Our Wines

- Clouds MCC 2017 350
Intense granny smith apples on the nose as well as a hint of biscuit. The palate entry is clean with notes of lemon, leading to a dry finish. The wine spent 12 months on the lees.
- Clouds PINK Sauvignon Blanc 2018 295
This light salmon colour wine is a blend of sauvignon blanc with a splash of syrah. The nose is raspberry filled with hints of kiwi. The palate is weighty, fresh and crisp with a long, dry finish.
- Clouds Sauvignon Blanc 2017 295
A tropical nose with some upfront flint displays vivid aromas of granadilla and more subtle nuances of gooseberry. This is followed through to a crisp dry wine on the palate with a distinct saline finish that lingers. A real crowd pleaser.
- Clouds Sauvignon Blanc 2018 295
This wine has a tropical nose and displays melon and gooseberry aromas. With mineral notes and hints of grapefruit and passionfruit on the palate, this crisp wine follows through to a lingering finish.
- Clouds Chenin Blanc 2017 350
This wine was made from old bush vines grown in Wellington. It was raised in concrete egg and amphora to truly reflect only the old vine chenin character. On the nose expect tropical notes of nectarine and ripe pear with a textural complex palate typical of this grape.
- Clouds Chenin Blanc 2018 350
Once again, our Chenin was made from old bush vines in Wellington. Concrete egg and amphora aging reveals a typical old vine character. On the nose look for mineral notes with a vibrant and complex palate, so distinctive of this grape.
- Clouds Chardonnay 2017 395
A wine with a delicate, fresh entry and shows crushed seashells, citrus blossoms and freshly cut limes on the nose. The palate is tropical with a persistent mineral finish. Fermented and matured in a combination of concrete egg, amphora and small French oak barrels.
- Clouds Chardonnay 2018 395
This wine has a wonderful entry that shows pear blossoms, lime and citrus undertones on the nose, which is also prominent on the palate. The wine is held together by a persistent line of acidity, adding to the freshness and longevity of the Chardonnay.
- Clouds Pinot Noir 2017 395
This Pinot noir is fruit-forward and concentrated. The nose is deep and brooding and shows a medley of perfumed purple and black fruit with typical sour cherry, black current and also some earthy undertones. It's a wine that's complex and fresh at the same time with just the right balance of fruit, oak and acidity.

Clouds Pinot Noir 2018*395

On the nose this Pinot noir is perfumed and brooding, a combination of purple fruit and forest floor. A more structured wine than previous vintages, balanced by juicy, dark fruit and fresh acidity.

Clouds Shiraz 2016*395

This Shiraz shows a medley of red and purple fruit on the nose which also leads on the palate. The concentration and density of the shiraz is balanced by good acid tension and delicate fruit. Soft and textured with loads of spice and black current.

Clouds Shiraz 2017*395

This Shiraz displays red fruit on the nose with smoky nuances which also leads onto the palate. Concentrated fruit is balanced by hints of spice. This wine is textured with prevalent tannins. Fermented naturally with 100% whole bunches, and oaked for 18 months in seasoned casks.

Clouds Red blend 2017*395

A full-bodied wine, intense in colour with purple fruit dominating the nose. The palate is juicy with tannins that will develop with age. A blend of cabernet, merlot and petit verdot is grown on Clouds Estate. These components are harvested, fermented and matured together. The wine spent 20 months on older French oak and as before it is bottled with minimum filtration.

Clouds Chardonnay 2017 MAGNUM*795

A wine with a delicate, fresh entry and shows crushed seashells, citrus blossoms and freshly cut limes on the nose. The palate is tropical with a persistent mineral finish. Fermented and matured in a combination of concrete egg, amphora and small French oak barrels.

Clouds Pinot Noir 2017 MAGNUM*795

This Pinot noir is fruit-forward and concentrated. The nose is deep and brooding and shows a medley of perfumed purple and black fruit with typical sour cherry, black current and also some earthy undertones. It's a wine that's complex and fresh at the same time with just the right balance of fruit, oak and acidity.

Clouds Red Blend 2016 MAGNUM*795

Dark and brooding, with black current and fynbos dominating the nose. The palate is rich & dense with ripe, round tannins and just enough acidity to balance the fruit. This is a blend of three varieties grown on Clouds and spent 20 months on oak.
